

Town of Edgewater Plan Commission

The Town of Edgewater Plan Commission, consisting of five members plus one alternate appointed by the Town Board, is responsible for promoting Town planning and recommending programs for public improvement. The Plan Commission does work on ordinance development and amendment, and accepts assignments from the Town Board. Land use issues are referred to the Plan Commission for review and recommendation to the Town Board for action. Specific referrals to the Plan Commission are enumerated in sec. 62.23(5) Wis. Stats. and also can be found listed in the Town of Edgewater Plan Commission Ordinance 2005-5. The Plan Commission has developed an official Town Map and is responsible for revaluation and amending the Edgewater Comprehensive Plan. The Plan Commission has edited the Edgewater Town Yearly Newsletter and maintains the Town of Edgewater Website. Reports to the Town Board are made at each Town Board Monthly Meeting, and the Public Participation Plan requires open discussion and noticed open public meetings.
